11/24/2025	Notice of docket entry received from Appeals Court Please take note that on November 24, 2025, the following entry was made on the docket of the above-referenced case: ORDER (RE#1): The plaintiff in this action filed in Suffolk Superior Court has filed a petition under G. L. c. 231, s. 118, first par., seeking review of an order of transfer of the action to the Housing Court pursuant to pursuant to G. L. c. 185C, s. 20. It appears from the record that the transfer occurred administratively without any formal judicial action. After review, the petition is allowed only to the extent that the transfer order is hereby vacated and the matter is remanded to the Superior Court for further consideration of the defendants' notice of transfer. The plaintiff is to be given a reasonable opportunity to file an opposition to the transfer. I express no view as to the merits of a transfer on remand. So ordered. 12/23/2025	Notice of docket entry received from Appeals Court Please take note that on December 23, 2025, the following entry was made on the docket of the above-referenced case: Order (RE##1, 5, and 6): After review of the motion to reconsider filed by the respondent and the response to the motion to reconsider filed by the petitioner, the motion to reconsider is allowed. The single justice's order of 11/24/2025 in 2025-J-0867 is hereby vacated. General Laws ch. 231, s. 118, first par., provides "[a] party aggrieved by an interlocutory order of a trial court justice in the superior court department, the housing court department, the land court department, the juvenile court department or the probate and family court department may file, within thirty days of the entry of such order, a petition in the appropriate appellate court seeking relief from such order." The record here reflects the plaintiff filed a complaint in Suffolk Superior Court. The defendants filed a notice of transfer to the Housing Court pursuant to G. L. c. 185C, s. 20 on 11/19/25 and the action was transferred to the Metro South Housing Court on 11/21/25. I am without the authority to review the petition as the record does not reflect any action made by a Superior Court judge. The petition must therefore be dismissed. To the extent the petitioner may file a motion for relief from the transfer in the Metro South Housing Court, and be aggrieved by a judicial action on that motion, the petitioner may file a new G. L. c. 231, s. 118, first par., petition at that time. Cf. Papp v. Westborough Gardens LLC/BVF-V Westborough LLC, 493 Mass. 1018, 1082 (plaintiff could seek G. L. c. 231, s. 118, first par., review of housing court judge's order denying plaintiff's request to transfer his case back to Superior Court following transfer under G. L. c. 185C, s. 20). The petition is dismissed. (D'Angelo, J.) *Notice/Attest/Cowin, J.	10	Image
