03/02/2026	Notice of Docket Entry from Appeals Court Please take note that on March 2, 2026, the following entry was made on the docket of the above-referenced case: ORDER (RE#1): The defendant in a civil proceeding in the Metro South Housing Court has filed a motion pursuant to Mass. R. A. P. 6 seeking a stay pending appeal. The underlying docket, 26H82CV00012, indicates that the plaintiff filed a complaint on January 16, 2026 seeking preliminary and permanent injunctive relief. On February 10, 2026, a hearing was scheduled for March 2, 2026 on the request for a preliminary injunction. The defendant filed the motion to stay on an emergency basis on the morning of the scheduled hearing. After review, the motion is denied. Despite the movant's claims to the contrary, there is no appeal pending under this docket. The movant has filed an appeal in a separate summary process	9

case, but the motion fails to establish that the single justice has or should exercise the authority to enter the requested stay based on that appeal. This order is without prejudice to the defendant's exercising any right of appeal from any resulting injunctive order that may issue. So ordered

12/12/2025 Notice of Docket Entry from Appeals Court:

ORDER: (RE#19) Before me is a motion by the appellant, Sandra Frommer, to stay proceedings in a pending summary process case in the Metro South Housing Court (Docket 24H82SP03575) between the plaintiff Lenox Farms Limited Partnership and the defendants Mohamed Kassem and Danny Abouelkhier.

A review of the docket in that case indicates that on 01/24/2025, the appellant filed a motion to intervene. On 02/18/2025, after a hearing, a judge denied the motion and noted in an endorsement order, "the intervenor was unable to provide any evidence of a tenancy with the plaintiff." The appellant did not file a notice of appeal from that decision. Months later, on 06/04/2025, the appellant filed a renewed motion to intervene and motions for additional relief. Noting the previous order of 02/18/2025 denying a motion to intervene, the Housing Court judge denied the renewed motion to intervene on 06/09/2025. The appellant filed a notice of appeal on 07/09/2025, and this appeal entered on the Appeals Court docket.

After the case entered on this court's docket, the appellant has filed in this court three prior unsuccessful motions to stay the trial court proceedings. These motions have been denied by two prior single justices on 10/01/2025, 10/14/2025, and 11/24/2025. I have reviewed the prior motions and single justice decisions as well as the pertinent materials in the trial court, and I discern no basis for granting relief to the appellant. Accordingly, the appellant's fourth motion to stay is denied. (Hodgens, J.).

12/16/2025 Notice of Docket Entry from Appeals Court:

Please take note that, with respect to the Motion for panel review of Single Justice decision filed by Dany Abouelkhier. (Paper #6), on December 16, 2025, the following order was entered on the docket of the above-referenced case:

RE#6&7: After review, the "petition for panel review of single justice order" is construed as a notice of appeal from the single justice's 11/25/2025 order denying the defendant's G. L. c. 231, s. 118, first par., petition. As there is no right to appeal the order of the single justice denying relief pursuant to G. L. c. 231, s. 118, first par., the petitioner's notice of appeal is struck. See McMenimen v. Passatempo, 452 Mass. 178, 189-90 (2008); Rollins Envtl. Servs., Inc. v. Superior Court, 368 Mass. 174, 181 (1975). The request for a stay pending appeal is denied as moot. (Hodgens, J)

11/24/2025	Notice of docket entry received from Appeals Court Please take note that on November 24, 2025, the following entry was made on the docket of the above-referenced case: ORDER (RE#1): The plaintiff in this action filed in Suffolk Superior Court has filed a petition under G. L. c. 231, s. 118, first par., seeking review of an order of transfer of the action to the Housing Court pursuant to pursuant to G. L. c. 185C, s. 20. It appears from the record that the transfer occurred administratively without any formal judicial action. After review, the petition is allowed only to the extent that the transfer order is hereby vacated and the matter is remanded to the Superior Court for further consideration of the defendants' notice of transfer. The plaintiff is to be given a reasonable opportunity to file an opposition to the transfer. I express no view as to the merits of a transfer on remand. So ordered. 12/23/2025	Notice of docket entry received from Appeals Court Please take note that on December 23, 2025, the following entry was made on the docket of the above-referenced case: Order (RE##1, 5, and 6): After review of the motion to reconsider filed by the respondent and the response to the motion to reconsider filed by the petitioner, the motion to reconsider is allowed. The single justice's order of 11/24/2025 in 2025-J-0867 is hereby vacated. General Laws ch. 231, s. 118, first par., provides "[a] party aggrieved by an interlocutory order of a trial court justice in the superior court department, the housing court department, the land court department, the juvenile court department or the probate and family court department may file, within thirty days of the entry of such order, a petition in the appropriate appellate court seeking relief from such order." The record here reflects the plaintiff filed a complaint in Suffolk Superior Court. The defendants filed a notice of transfer to the Housing Court pursuant to G. L. c. 185C, s. 20 on 11/19/25 and the action was transferred to the Metro South Housing Court on 11/21/25. I am without the authority to review the petition as the record does not reflect any action made by a Superior Court judge. The petition must therefore be dismissed. To the extent the petitioner may file a motion for relief from the transfer in the Metro South Housing Court, and be aggrieved by a judicial action on that motion, the petitioner may file a new G. L. c. 231, s. 118, first par., petition at that time. Cf. Papp v. Westborough Gardens LLC/BVF-V Westborough LLC, 493 Mass. 1018, 1082 (plaintiff could seek G. L. c. 231, s. 118, first par., review of housing court judge's order denying plaintiff's request to transfer his case back to Superior Court following transfer under G. L. c. 185C, s. 20). The petition is dismissed. (D'Angelo, J.) *Notice/Attest/Cowin, J.	10	 Image
